

Adelaide & Leon

Starting their romance at the local rodeo in their small mining town of Pannawonica, followed by a proposal on New Zealand's Waiheke Island, of course a destination wedding was on the cards for this smitten couple. Taking advantage of the beautiful, tropical surrounds of the Whitsundays, Adelaide Poguet and Leon Tong held an outdoor ceremony followed by a dreamy beachfront reception, swoon!

date: 28 August 2015

number of guests: 80

ceremony: Whitsunday Pavilion reception: Whitsunday Sailing Club coordinator: Helen Hinschen, Total Weddings decorator: The Event Company Whitsundays

flowers: The Flower Hut cake: Whitsunday Baked Creations photography: Rob Kellett, Total Weddings

videography: Mike Currell, Emotive Media

Why did you choose your venue/location?

We looked around at several locations for the wedding but the Whitsundays just looked so magical! It had everything we wanted in one location; the beach, fishing, Great Barrier Reef, the islands, the pubs and everything was within walking distance.

Read more and share your wedding at www.queenslandbrides.com.au

